

2025 Page Annual Conference

Allison Kahn
Managing Director,
JPMorganChase

Allison Kahn is the Global Head of Human Resources, Employee Experience, Diversity, Opportunity & Inclusion Communications and Co-Head Corporate Center Communications for JPMorganChase, based in New York City.

In Kahn's current role, responsibilities include overseeing all internal communications for Human Resources, Employee Experience, and co-leading Employee Communications more broadly, in addition to leading both internal and external communications for the firm's Diversity, Opportunity & Inclusion org.

With over 20 years of experience, Kahn has served as a communications and marketing leader and culture carrier at Fortune 500 and non-profit brands. She has worked for iconic brands including JetBlue, the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), Mastercard and others. Her exceptional storytelling and writing skills have earned her placements and publications in numerous top-tier and niche outlets worldwide. Kahn has also taught graduate and undergraduate media studies and communication at Hunter College, SUNY Purchase and Manhattanville University as an Adjunct Assistant Professor.

Kahn currently holds a Bachelor's degree in Communication and Media Studies, as well as a Master of Fine Arts in Integrated Media. As an industry expert and social impact leader, Kahn's also sits as an executive advisory board member to the Lesbians Who Tech & Allies and Committee Chair to the Greenwich Public Schools PTA Council.

JPMorganChase is a leading financial services firm based in the U.S., with operations worldwide. The company is a leader in investment banking, financial services for consumers and small businesses, commercial banking, financial transaction processing and asset management. Under the J.P. Morgan and Chase brands, the firm serves millions of customers in the U.S., and many of the world's most prominent corporate, institutional and government clients globally.