

2025 Page International Exchange

Michael Huijser
General Director,
National Maritime Museum

For the last 9 years, Michael Huijser has been the general director of the National Maritime Museum. During this period, the museum increased their visitors number by 25 % and became “museum of the year” in 2023.

Michael Huijser has been working in the international art and museum world for over 30 years.

He is a cultural entrepreneur and expert, strong and engaging leader, with 30 years of experience in managing and developing cultural entities. He has high integrity, energy and flair, and a reputation for creative concepts. He was previously director of the Rembrandt House, the Zuiderzee Museum and manager of the Manarat al Saadivat art hall in the United Arab Emirates. He was also one of the initiators of the international art fair Art Rotterdam.